Engineers in Athletics

TRACK

Our track team this year has been a very successful one—much more successful than it was supposed that it would be at the beginning of the year. The engineering college is well represented on the team. To these men we express the congratulations and the gratitude due them for their splendid work for Ohio State.

We have been very fortunate this year in having a track team above the average. We have won all our meets so far this year. Those whom we have beaten are Wesleyan, Indiana, Michigan Aggies, and Carnegie Tech. The Engineering College is well represented on the team. Engineers on the team are: Clemens, Green, Murphy, Ross, Russell, Durstine, Hartzell, Kaplow, Croft, Bohling.

TENNIS

Our tennis team has been very successful also this year as it was last year. Under the leadership of Captain Carran the net artists have beat all opponents so far this year by large margins with the exception of Chicago, to whom we went down in bitter defeat. There is only one member of the engineering college on the squad, that being Joseph E. Thomas, a junior in the college of architectural engineering. Thomas has been a big asset to the team, winning all of his matches except the one at Chicago. To Joe we present our gratitude for upholding that branch of athletics for the engineering college.

Edward J. Kaplow, Eng. 4—Kaplow is graduating this year and in "Kap" we are losing a real athlete. Although more famous for his football ability, Kaplow has been a valuable asset to the track team as a javelin thrower.

George P. Russell, Eng. 2—Russell started in at running the quarter mile and is now a two-miler. He is a sophomore and much is expected of him in the next two years.

Roland A. Bohling, Eng. 4—Bohling came to State without any previous track experience and has been very consistent in his work here. He is a distance man and one of the relay team. Bohling graduates this spring.

Loren A. Murphy, Eng. 2—Murphy is a hammer and weights man and had no high school experience. He promises to be one of the best weight men that Ohio State has ever had.

J. Wallace Green, Eng. 3—Green started as a half miler and would have won distinction as such, but he was changed to the hurdles because of the scarcity of them. He has been a consistent point-winner all season.

John E. Durstine, Eng. 3—Besides being a valuable man to the track team, Durstine is a scholar, having been elected to Sigma Xi. Durstine is a quarter-miler and a relay man.

Herman L. Hartzell, Eng. 3—Hartzell came to State without any high school experience and has been a real athlete. He can run the half, the mile, and the two-mile and is a cross-country man.

Harry L. Clemens, Eng. 2—Clemens is a dash man and due to a late start, did not show up this year. However, he is only a sophomore, and shows great promise for next year.

A. Ward Ross, Eng. 2—Ross has been a consistent point-getter this year in the quarter, half, and mile runs. He is a sophomore and gives promise of being a real track man.

Daniel R. Croft, Eng. 2—Croft is a hammer man and gives promise of being a regular on the squad next year. He is a sophomore.
